

Location

Harrogate has a district population of approximately 150,000 people and 1.5 million visitors per annum.

It is one of Europe's foremost exhibition and conference centres. The town was voted "Happiest Place to Live in England" in 2015 by Rightmove.

Situation

The property is situated on Montpellier Gardens in Low Harrogate, a specialist retail area located on the western side of Harrogate town centre.

The surrounding occupiers form a mixture of high class retail, restaurant, hotel and residential apartments.

The property is in close proximity to the Royal Pump House and notable occupiers within the vicinity include Tom Howley kitchens, Tennants Auctioneers, Betty's Café, Toast, John Lewis of Hungerford, Max Mara and Morgan Clare.

Description

The 5 storey property comprises a Victorian stone-faced building under a pitched, slate covered roof with basement.

There is a separate large entranceway to the left of the shop front.

Air conditioning is installed in the basement and the Ground floor.

Upper Floors

Subject to planning, it may be possible to convert the upper floors to 2/3 apartments or offices.

Enquiries must be made to the planning department of Harrogate Borough Council.
