Location

Clifton Moor is York's most established and largest out of town industrial, trade and business park. The subject development sits within the heart of Clifton Moor approximately two miles to the north of York city centre on Audax Close, which is accessed off Audax Road. Clifton Moor sits adjacent to the A1237 York outer ring road which in turn provides links to A64, A59 and A19.

Description

The development itself consists of a terrace of industrial and business space units arranged in a L-shape. The industrial unit is accessed via a single pedestrian door and benefits from the provision of a single sectional up and over ground level loading door. Internally the unit provides for open industrial space with concrete floors, blockwork walls, open ceilings to eaves and strip LED lighting. Within the unit is an accessible wc and kitchenette facility.
